PLANE CRASH VICTIMS IDENTITIES

The pilot of Tuesday's fatal plane crash into Choctawhatchee Bay has been preliminarily identified as Gregory Scott Coleman, DOB 10-31-63, of Cedar Park Texas.

The two passengers who also died in the crash are preliminarily identified as Coleman's mother-in-law, Charlene Black Miller, DOB 1-19-47 of College Station Texas and victim James Patrick Black, DOB 9-8-52, no address available at this time. The Medical Examiner's Office will confirm identities.

The trio was enroute to Destin for the Thanksgiving holiday when the single engine Piper Malibu went down in Joe's Bayou during a landing attempt in heavy fog at Destin Airport around 7:40 p.m. November 23rd.

The National Transportation Safety Board and F-A-A will investigate the cause of the crash.
