OCSO INVESTIGATES SHALIMAR HOME INVASION ROBBERY

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office is investigating a home invasion robbery that took place around 11 p.m. August first in Shalimar. No one was injured.

The victim at 10 Oak Lane says she was sleeping on her couch when she heard a knocked on the door. When she opened it, a man armed with a black handgun and wearing a black bandana over his face forced his way in and demanded money. Another man then entered and they took cash, a wallet, and a purse before running out and heading northbound on Oak Street towards 8th Street.

The first individual is described as a light-skinned black male. He was wearing a grey, hooded sweatshirt and dark shorts. The second individual is described as a dark-skinned black male wearing a black hooded sweat shirt and dark shorts.

Deputies quickly set up a perimeter in the area and called in a K-9 to try to establish a track but no suspects were located.

Anyone with information on the crime is asked to contact the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office at 850-651-7400 or Emerald Coast Crime Stoppers at 850-863-TIPS.
