

2011 Animal Cruelty Investigation and Prosecution Seminar

State Attorney
William "Bill" Eddins
invites you to attend the 2011 Animal
Cruelty Investigation and Prosecution
Seminar February 3, 2011

This FREE seminar will focus on the ins and outs of investigating animal cruelty cases, the link between animal cruelty and other crimes, as well as the successful prosecution of animal cruelty cases. Instructors include: Sherry Ramsey, Director of Animal Cruelty Prosecutions for the Humane Society of the United States and retired Lt. Sherry Schlueter, a 30 year law enforcement veteran with the Broward County Sheriff's Office, Section Supervisor of the Special Victims and Family Crimes Section and currently the Executive Director of the Wildlife Care Center of the Humane Society of the United States. Lt Schlueter also helped write and lobby for the current felony animal cruelty law and has spoken nationally and internationally on animal cruelty and the link with interpersonal violence.

Joining Forces to Prevent Animal Cruelty

What: Free 2011 Animal Cruelty Investigation and Prosecution Seminar

When: February 3, 2011, Training begins at 8AM and ends at 4PM

Who: All LEO's, Animal Control, and Prosecutors from the Circuit

1st

Where: Northwest Florida State College, FWB Campus, Auditorium, Building 8, 1170 Martin Luther King Blvd, FWB, 22547

***** RSVP to Assistant State Attorney Adrienne Emerson at 850 595-4747, or by fax at 850 595-4762 or by email at adrienne\_emerson@sa01.org by January 24, 2011*****

