HAVE A SAFE MEMORIAL WEEKEND

It's expected to be a busy Memorial Day weekend around Okaloosa County, with plenty of people on area roads and beaches.

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office wants to remind drivers and boaters alike to avoid drinking and then getting behind the wheel or controls.

The Sheriff's Office Traffic Enforcement Unit will be out this holiday weekend, focusing on not just the National Click It or Ticket seat belt safety campaign, but also on impaired, reckless, or aggressive drivers.

Patience and courtesy is encouraged on area roadways and waterways due to the expected surge in holiday congestion.

It's also good to re-emphasize vigilance with children around pools and waterways as well.

Meantime, the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office salutes all our military personnel past and present during this Memorial Weekend.

Have a safe and happy holiday!
