JOINT INVESTIGATION LEADS TO SHALIMAR DRUG ARREST

Denise M. Spier

On May 2nd, 2011, Okaloosa County Drug Task Force Investigators began a combined narcotics investigation with the California Department of Justice. This investigation resulted in the execution of a search warrant at #8 3rd St. #2 in Shalimar.

During the execution of the search warrant, investigators recovered more than four pounds of marijuana which had been shipped from California. Additional marijuana was located within the unit, both loose for apparent consumption and in packaging materials. Paraphernalia indicative of distribution and personal use was seized as well as Diazepam and Zolpiden (Schedule IV Controlled Substances).

Denise M. Spier, DOB 01/03/1963, is charged with Possession of Marijuana with the Intent to Distribute, Possession of Controlled Substances without a Prescription, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.
