ARMED ROBBER TARGETS PIZZA DELIVERY BUSINESS

The Pizza Hut Delivery business at 421 Racetrack Road was targeted by an armed robber around 9:30 p.m. Monday night, October 24th. It is the second time the business has been robbed this year.

Employees say a man entered and robbed the store at gun point last night. An OCSO K-9 unit responded to try to track the thief, who had left walking towards Racetrack Road.

The robber is described as a young black male, about 5'10" tall, wearing dark jeans and a dark t-shirt. He was using another t-shirt to cover his face.

A man also held-up an employee at the site back on April 15th around 9:40 p.m. The suspect in that robbery was described as a young, skinny black male with short cropped black hair.

Anyone with information on the hold-up is asked to contact the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office at 850-651-7400 or Emerald Coast Crime Stoppers at 850-863-TIPS.
