OCSO INSPECTOR EARNS CONGRESSIONAL RECOGNITION

Dist. Representative Helen Rigdon presents a Congressional Certificate of Recognition to OCSO Inspector George Collins.

OCSO Inspector George Collins has received Congressional Recognition for his work investigating and increasing public awareness about the crime of human trafficking. Inspector Collins has been instrumental in bringing national and international attention to problems with the J-1 Summer Work Travel Visa program and subsequent exploitation of foreign workers at the hands of some labor brokers who abuse the program.

Collins received an award for his professionalism and dedication from Florida 1st District U.S. Congressman Jeff Miller.

The citation was presented Monday by District Representative Helen Rigdon.
