The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office is working to determine who attacked and robbed a Crestview resident this morning in the garage of the victim's home at 663 Ridge Lake Road.

The victim says he was robbed at gunpoint around 9:22 a.m. by a man who had entered his garage. The man also struck the 67-year old victim several times with the weapon before taking off.

Deputies scoured the area looking for the suspect, described as a slender black male about 5'10" to 6' tall, wearing an unknown color long sleeve shirt and pants.

Schools in the area went into a temporary precautionary lockdown as deputies searched the area for the gunman.

The victim was taken to North Okaloosa Medical Center in Crestview for treatment of his injuries.
