CRESTVIEW WOMAN CHARGED WITH BATTERY ON A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office has charged a Crestview woman with disorderly conduct, battery on a law enforcement officer, and possession of drug paraphernalia following a disturbance at an Okaloosa Island nightspot.

Deputies were called to Club Ten on Seibert Drive around 1:30 Friday morning. Employees told dispatchers 21-year old Shatorrian Howard attacked a co-worker with a hot curling iron. While escorting her out of the club, the deputy says Howard ran across the bar and hit a bartender in the mouth. She was restrained and removed, but while the deputy was putting on her seat belt in the rear of the patrol car, he says Howard kicked him. She also spit on the deputy when he went to remove her from the car to take into the booking facility. During a search of Howard's purse, deputies found two pipes with marijuana residue.
