Information Sought in Baker Pharmacy Burglary

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office is asking for information about a burglary that occurred at the Health Smart Pharmacy located at 5809 N. Highway 189 in Baker. Shortly before 1:00 a.m. on the morning of July 25th, two unknown male suspects gained entry by throwing a piece of concrete through the glass front door. They then forced entry into the pharmacy section and stole various prescription medications and other items.

One of the suspects was wearing a dark colored hooded sweatshirt with the word "Adidas" on the front in white letters, grey shorts, grey and black gloves, and black and teal colored tennis shoes. He had the hood of the shirt pulled over his head and a white piece of cloth under the hood. The second suspect was wearing a dark colored hooded sweatshirt and also had the hood pulled over his head. Over the hood, he had a navy blue toboggan over his head and face. He was wearing dark blue jeans with a white design sewn on the right rear pocket and black and white tennis shoes. Suspects' race is unknown.
