CFA TEAM TO RECOMMEND OCSO RE-ACCREDITATION

A team of assessors from the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation was on scene at the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office May 7th through the 9th and reviewed the agency to determine its compliance with rigorous CFA standards. The team reviewed written materials, interviewed individuals, and visited officers and other places where compliance can be witnessed.

Wednesday, the team leader gave Sheriff Larry Ashley very positive feedback in connection to the visit.

The team will be recommending re-accreditation to the CFA Commission, which meets in June to review the recommendation.
