OCSO MISSING PERSON ALERT

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in trying to locate a missing teenager who was last seen at his home on Airport Road in Destin around 1:50 p.m. November 20th.

The family of 18-year old Jonha Campbell says he didn't show up for work that day and he didn't answer repeated calls to his cell phone.

A deputy patrolling Gulf Shore Drive in Destin early this morning spotted a Honda

Civic near the Norriego Point beach access. The car, which turns out to belong to Campbell, had reportedly been there for several days. Campbell's driver's license, some cash, and his debit card were inside the car. Campbell is a black male, approximately five-foot-eleven inches tall and weighing 150 pounds.

Anyone with information on Campbell's whereabouts is asked to please call the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office at 850-651-7400.
