OCSO INVESTIGATES APPARENT STABBING

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office is investigating an apparent stabbing that took place around 5:30 this morning on Hardie Lane in the Fort Walton Beach area.

The victim says he was attacked by two individuals around 5:30 a.m. EMS crews say the man appeared to have a stab wound to his back. He was taken by medical helicopter to a Pensacola hospital for treatment.

Initial reports describe the attackers as black males - one with gold teeth who was not wearing a shirt and another wearing a tank top. No other description is available at this time. Additional information will be released as warranted.
