INTOXICATED MAN ARRESTED AFTER DISRUPTING CHURCH SERVICE, THREATENING DEPUTY

A Holt man faces charges after entering a church in Milligan and yelling profanities before attempting to walk down State Road 4. An OCSO Deputy attending the church service at First Assembly of God April 29th was concerned for the safety of 44-year old Michael Holman, who smelled of alcohol and was having trouble keeping his balance as he walked towards the road. When he attempted contact with him however, Holman became aggressive and would not remove his hands from his pockets. He then threatened to take the deputy's firearm and kill him and lunged towards the officer.

Holman was taken into custody and is charged with disorderly intoxication and threatening a public servant.
