FWB MAN FACES SECOND CHARGE OF INDECENT EXPOSURE IN SIXTEEN MONTHS

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office has arrested a Fort Walton Beach man on a charge of indecent exposure in public for the second time in the past sixteen months.

45-year old Scott Charles Roberts of Fairview Drive is accused of pulling down his pants and exposing himself to a woman arriving home at her Lowery Drive apartment complex October 29th. He ran off when the woman screamed but deputies located Roberts a short distance away. He was positively identified by the victim.

Roberts had also been charged with indecent exposure and loitering or prowling back on June 11th, 2014. A man at Oak Tree Nature Park on Hollywood Boulevard in Mary Esther says he spotted Roberts masturbating in the middle of the trail. When deputies arrived, Roberts admitted to the act but stated he did not intend for anyone to see him. Another victim says she had been at the post office nearby during the same timeframe and saw Roberts standing in a clearing of the woods, naked from the waist down.
