money and it was apparent the question upset Armstrong. Haynes stated Armstrong began responding to the defendant's question and while doing so started pointing his finger at the defendant, Dakota Ziglar. Haynes stated while Armstrong was in mid-sentence, the defendant, Dakota Ziglar pulled a tan pistol from his waistband area and shot Armstrong in the forehead. Haynes stated Armstrong did not have a weapon or make any threats to the defendant, Dakota Ziglar prior to the shooting. Haynes stated the defendant did not say anything after he shot Armstrong, just calmly walked out of the house. Haynes stated she was standing right next to Armstrong when he was shot. Haynes described the weapon as a tan automatic pistol, that she believed belonged to the defendant, Dakota Ziglar's mother Susan Ziglar.

I conducted an interview with Susan Ziglar at the OCSO North District Office. Ziglar stated she last saw the defendant, Dakota Ziglar at her residence located at 935 E. Edney Avenue, Crestview, Florida at approximately 1500 hours. Ziglar stated the defendant was on her front porch with his girlfriend Megan Gary and everything seemed fine. Ziglar confirmed that she owns a .380 Sig Saur pistol, tan in color and she confirmed it is currently missing. Ziglar stated she stores the firearm in her vehicle and last saw it either Thursday (August 27) or Friday (August 28). Ziglar stated the defendant, Dakota Ziglar knew she kept the firearm in her vehicle and could have easily taken her car keys while she was sleeping.

A search warrant was submitted and approved by the Honorable Patricia Grinsted for the residence located at 1250 East Chestnut Avenue, Crestview, Florida. During the crime scene processing a .380 shell casing was located in Haynes bedroom.

Based on the eye witness statements and physical evidence collected at the crime scene, I do believe the defendant, James Dakota Ziglar committed the offense of attempted murder by willfully pointing and discharging a deadly weapon at the victim's head, causing the bullet to enter the head above the right eye and did so without provocation. This offense is in violation of Florida State Statute 782.04.1.a. This incident occurred in Okaloosa County Florida, where I am a sworn law enforcement officer.
