[ STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE / NARRATIVE ]

On December 29, 2015, the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office responded to the Okaloosa County Jail located at 1200 E. James Lee Blvd, Crestview, Florida for an introduction of Contraband investigation. Lt. Roper received a written anonymous tip stating "Defendant Jacob Hice has his girl (later identified as Alissa Barr) put spice in a box of candy for him and his lawyer Joe Reosti, brings it to him during a legal visit.

During the course of my investigation, I discovered the following information. Defendant Hice made 22 calls to Barr cellular device (850- ) between December 24 -29, 2015, and they had numerous conversations regarding getting more candy to his attorney "Joe" (Reosti) but this time the Milk Duds would be "soup up".

Specifically on December 24, 2016, Hice asked Barr not to forget his Milk Duds, he asked for a mini lighter and reminded her not to forget to super glue it back.

REPORT NO: OCSO16ARR001575

On December 25, 2016, Hice advised Barr that she might be able to fit it "all" inside one box of Milk Duds and she may have to poke a hole in "it" to flatten it down.

On December 26, 2016, Hice asked Barr if she was getting 2 or 4 ounces. Barr advised she did not know yet but she could get 2 for thirty from her father.

On December 28, 2015, Barr advised Hice that she delivered 2 boxes of candies, which consisted of 1 box of Milk Duds, 1 box of Mike & Ikes, and a Christmas card to Reosti office for him.

On December 29, 2015, at 2012 hours, the Defendant Jacob Hice had a legal visit with Attorney Joseph Reosti and afterwards was immediately strip searched. Defendant Jacob Hice was found to be in possession of two boxes of candy and a Christmas card, signed by Alissa. One box of candy, Milk Duds was concealed in his underwear and in addition to the candy it contained a small blue Bic lighter and a foil package (suspected spice) labeled "Deadman Walking." The second box of candy "Mike & Ike's" was concealed in Defendant Jacob Hice left sock. The contraband was photographed, seized and placed into evidence.

I reviewed the jail video for December 29, 2015 that captures the public lobby area and observed Reosti entering the facility. I can clearly see Reosti's pant pockets are bulging from the candy boxes and he is holding a red envelope, which was card size. Reosti did not have any other documents or briefcase with him. Reosti signs in on the Okaloosa County Department of Corrections Central Control visitors log at 2012 hours. Reosti writes down Jacob Hice as the inmate he is visiting. Reosti enters the secure side of the facility. At 2049 hours, Reosti signs out on the visitor's log. Reosti did not have the red envelope nor were his pockets bulging like when he entered the secured side of the jail.

The package labeled "Deadman Walking" that was concealed inside the box of Milk Dud candy was analyzed by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. The substance was identified as approximately 4 ounces of Fluoro-AMB, a Schedule I controlled substance which has a high potential for abuse and has no currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States and in its use under medical supervision does not meet accepted safety standards, per Florida Statute 893.03. (c) (179)

Therefore, based on physical evidence that includes the contraband, FDLE lab report, jail calls, jail video, statements and reports from the Okaloosa County Department of Corrections, I do believe there is probable cause that the Defendant Jacob Hice did request the contraband from Co-Defendant Alissa Barr and received the contraband through Co-Defendant Joseph Reosti. Defendant Hice willfully took possession of the candy with knowledge there was a controlled substance contained within and attempted to conceal the Narcotics on his person, did violated Florida State Statute 893.13(1a2) Possession of a Schedule 1 Controlled Substance and Florida State Statute 951.22, Smuggle Contraband into a Detention Facility. These offense's occurred in Okaloosa County, Florida where I am a sworn law enforcement officer.
