[STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE / NARRATIVE]

On 3/6/18, approximately 0000 Hrs., the defendant, Matthew Strickland, did violate Florida State Statute 784.045(1a1) Aggravated Battery.

On the above date and time the victim was an invited guest at 3695 Scenic Highway 98 Apt 801 Destin, Florida. The occupants and suspect of the residence advised the victim was being disrespectful and advised he needed to leave. As the victim stood at the top of the stair case, with his back facing down leading to the front door, a conversation occurred between the suspect and victim. The suspect told the victim to apologize to his girlfriend for calling her foul names. The victim looked at the suspect's girlfriend and stated " sorry that you are a bitch." The suspect then pushed the victim down the flight of stairs where he landed on a area carpet covering a tile floor. The flight of stairs are approximately 15 feet high from the second floor down to the ground floor. The victim suffered great bodily harm which sent him to the hospital where he is currently intubated and in a comma. He will also need facial reconstruction surgery.

The front door area where the victim landed had blood splatter from the victims impact on the floor. Blood splatter was located on a table's top and front by the front door. Blood splatter was also located on the first hand rail support of the stair case. There was also blood splatter in the door jam of the French front doors. Blood pooling was located on the area rugs and front door rug.

A non custodial interview was conducted with the suspect. The suspect advised he and the victim where at the top of the stair case and he wanted the victim to apologize to his girlfriend. squeezing, and the suspect attempted to defend himself. The suspect advised his actions of defending himself caused the victim to fall down the stairs. At the bottom of the stairs he and his other occupants of the residence attempted to render aid.

The suspect provided a verbal and written statement.

Contact was made with the suspect's girlfriend, Whitney Frase, who provided an sworn written and verbal statement. Frase advised she was sitting on the couch of the second floor of the condo when the suspect and another resident asked the victim to leave because he was making rude comments. The suspect asked the victim to apologize to Whitney. The victim looked at Whitney and stated "Im sorry you are a bitch." The suspect then pushed the victim down the stairs.

Contact was made with witness, Joshua Reynolds, who provided an sworn verbal and written statement. Joshua advised the victim was arguing with the suspect at the top of the stair case. The suspect told the victim to apologize to Whitney and the victim stated "im sorry you are a bitch." Joshua looked at Whitney and the next thing he knew the victim had fallen down the stairs.
